

PRESS RELEASE

(Stavanger, NORWAY – 10 January 2022) Huddlestock Fintech AS (OSE: HUDL) Ramtin Matin to join the Board of Directors

Ramtin Matin to join the Board of Directors of Huddlestock Fintech AS, officially effective as of the company's next General Meeting.

Ramtin Matin is Head of Innovation at Sparebank 1 SR-Bank. In the past four years, Matin has contributed to the groups work on competitive positioning, business development and innovation, including the banks' early adoption of Artificial Intelligence tools to enhance its customer experience and the introduction of a roboadvisor to handle inquiries for Sparebank 1 SR-Bank's Customer Service. He has had an active role in SR-Banks Venture Fund Finstart Nordic and acted as CEO of one of the fund's investment companies focused on Artificial Intelligence.

Matin is a regular speaker on Decentralised Finance, Artificial Intelligence and Blockchain, and has published several articles on the future of finance. Throughout his distinguished career, he has worked in various executive roles within strategy, technology and business development. In his last role with the American software analytics company SAS Institute, Matin headed up the regional office for Western Norway. Previous roles include management consulting with PWC and Senior Solutions Architect for SAS Institute in Norway and Denmark. He received his Executive MBA from Copenhagen Business School.

"We are delighted to have Ramtin Matin join Huddlestock's Board of Directors. His significant experience and understanding of the importance of technology innovation and embedded finance solutions in the growing platform economy, as well as, hands-on experience from business and customer intelligence as a Senior Solutions Architect with SAS Institute, the American analytics software company, will bring invaluable strategic and technical insights to Huddlestock's Board. His exceptional experience from technology innovation and software strategy will help steer the group as we expand our technology offering and professional business services outside our core markets of Germany and the Nordics in the coming years," says Øyvind Hovland, Chairman, Huddlestock Fintech Group.
