

PRESS RELEASE

(Stavanger, NORWAY – 31 March 2022) Huddlestock Fintech AS (OSE: HUDL) Intention to acquire the software developer F5IT in an all-share deal.

Huddlestock Fintech AS, a provider of innovative technology solutions to the capital markets, treasury and wealth management industries, today announces that a term sheet was entered into on 28 March 2022 for the intention to acquire 100% of F5 IT, a software developer focused on customised application and integration solutions within Fintech, PropTech and IoT. The company is highly complementary with existing Huddlestock operations in Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, and will accelerate the company's plans to become a leading Fintech in Europe.

“We are excited to welcome F5 IT's teams of software developers to the Huddlestock family. We see strong strategic fit between our two companies,” says John E. Skajem, CEO of Huddlestock Fintech AS. “Our acquisition the 20-person strong F5 IT team of full-stack and specialist developers will allow us to bring greater value to our customers and accelerate the deployment of our existing product suite to the market”

The addition of F5 IT will strengthen Huddlestock's Fintech expertise and add important PropTech and IoT knowledge to its team of world-class Capital Markets experts. With F5 ITs team of specialist and full-stack developers, Huddlestock expert consultants will be able to drive smarter business decisions and deliver innovative and inclusive solutions on one platform, furthering Huddlestock's technology-first mission.

“We are very proud of the teams' achievements over the past years. We are excited to join Huddlestock, Norway's first listed Fintech. Our combination will offer our clients a global growth platform allowing us to widen our offering of tailor-made software solutions,” says Stian Røisland, Chairman of F5 IT.

Financial details. Huddlestock will, in the form of a share-exchange make a payment of NOK 20,000,000 for 100% of the shares in F5 IT. The agreement further includes a potential earn-out of up to NOK 12,000,000 based on certain financial performance targets deliverable over the next three years. Payments will be based on a price of NOK 3,00 for each Huddlestock Fintech share. The total consideration, should all performance targets be met, will be NOK 32,000,000, entirely paid for by transferring 10,666,667 Huddlestock Fintech shares already held in treasury. The payment of the consideration shares will be done in arrears over the coming three years and will be subject to vesting provisions. F5 IT is expected to earn revenues of NOK 17,000,000 in 2022 on a stand-alone basis. Further expanded revenue flows will be sought out from the combined company and cost synergies will be achieved. The acquisition will be entirely paid for in an all-share deal with shares already held in treasury. From the date of the above announcement, the parties will enter a due diligence process that is expected to close within four weeks.

The acquisition of F5 IT is Huddlestock Fintech's second major acquisition in the last 12 months.
